

Feed your mind and read a book! Join our...

2026 Summer Reading Program

When: Monday June 1st to August 14th

Who: Open to residents entering Grades K-12 and currently living in a Caritas community

To start reading:

- 1. Select a book. *NOTE: As a children's reading program, we will ONLY order fiction or nonfiction children and young adult books. Books not matching these criteria may be denied.
- 2. Write down your book selection (see below), have a parent/guardian sign the order, and put it in your community rent box or drop it off to your community office.
- 3. Caritas will order your books for FREE! When your books arrive, we will let you know so you can begin reading!
- 4. When finished, complete a Caritas book report and submit it to your community office or rent box. Book reports are available at your community office or on the Caritas website.
- 5. Select another book and repeat until the end of the program on 8/14/2025.

Prizes: To learn about what prizes you could win, see the following flyer.

Questions: For more information about the program, visit or contact your community office.
